SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of seven (7) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not own, possess, or have under his control a firearm as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921.

The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall pay any fine that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release at the monthly rate of $250.00 plus 25% of gross income in excess of $2,500.00 per month..

The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act as directed by the Probation Officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense.

Defendant shall participate as directed in a program of mental health treatment approved by the Probation Officer to include psychosexual evaluation and counseling if deemed necessary and comply with the conditions of the sex offender contract under the guidance and supervision of the Probation Officer. Further, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment not to exceed an amount determined reasonable by the Probation Officer based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment and in conformance with the Probation Office's Sliding Scale for Mental Health Treatment Services.

The defendant shall cooperate in collection of DNA at the direction of his Probation Officer.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property (real, personal, or rental), residence, office, and/or vehicle, computer or other electronic communication of data storage devices or media at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The defendant shall permit confiscation and/or disposal of any material considered contraband or any other item which may be deemed to have evidentiary value related to violations of supervision.

The defendant shall submit to a financial audit and make a complete disclosure of his finances at the direction of the Probation Officer. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open new lines of credit without first being in compliance with restitution payments and obtaining authorization from the Probation Officer.

The defendant is prohibited from using an electronic bulletin board system, services that provide access to the Internet, or any public or private computer network. The defendant will obtain written approval from the Court to possess or use any computer at any location including employment. The defendant will permit routine inspection of any computer systems, hard drives, and other media storage materials by the United State Probation Office to confirm compliance with this condition. This inspection shall be no more intrusive than is necessary to ensure compliance with this condition. Any computer system which is accessible to the defendant is subject to inspection. The defendant will permit confiscation and/or disposal of any material considered contraband.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While the defendant is on supervised release pursuant to this judgment, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime. In addition:

1. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
2. The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
3. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
4. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
5. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
6. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change in residence or employment;
7. The defendant shall refrain from the excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician, and shall submit to periodic urinalysis tests as directed by the probation officer to determine the use of any controlled substance;
8. The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
9. The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
10. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
11. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
12. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
13. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

1:15-CR-290-MHC : Kevin M. Sullivan

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $ 15,000.00.

This fine includes any costs of incarceration and supervision.

This fine (plus any interest required) shall be due and payable immediately. If the fine is not paid immediately, the defendant shall make fine payments from any wages he may earn in prison in accordance with the Bureau of Prisons Financial Responsibility Program. During the period of incarceration, the defendant shall pay, at a minimum, the greater of $25.00 or 50% of the deposits in his inmate trust account per quarter. Upon release from custody, any unpaid fine shall become a condition of supervised release.

If the fine is not paid, the court may sentence this defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 USC 3614.
